The Student Council, despite the many economic and organizational difficulties, managed to sponsor a rather productive year. They began the school year with the annual student-body dance which proved successful both economically and socially. Their next adventure was the Thanksgiving Day care packages for the poor. Trying to encourage student participation and activism the student council sponsored a spirit week with competitive volleyball games between the classes, an ecology week and Career week.

Through wind, rain and rabble rousing students, the photographers were able to produce the pictures found between these covers. The photographers wish to thank the teachers and students of SJ and ND High Schools for "putting up" with the problems of taking these pictures. Special recognition should be given to the Senior Division for ASSISTING in taking these pictures. So as this year draws to a close, we salute you Robert B. Eckstein and Kenneth R. Wilkes, photographers for the SJ and ND high school yearbook, REFLECTIONS.

Varsity Basketball

People incessantly refer to St. Joseph's as the "Cinderella team," when, in reality, luck was less of a factor than was defense. They were not a tremendous offensive threat and are woefully small (a 6'1", 5'10", 5'9" front line does not exactly strike terror in the hearts of opposing teams), but hustle and a defense like the Berlin Wall made this team a winner. Andre Hill set team scoring records, along with a less important one, smallest star guard (5'6") in Pilot annals.

Frosh Basketball

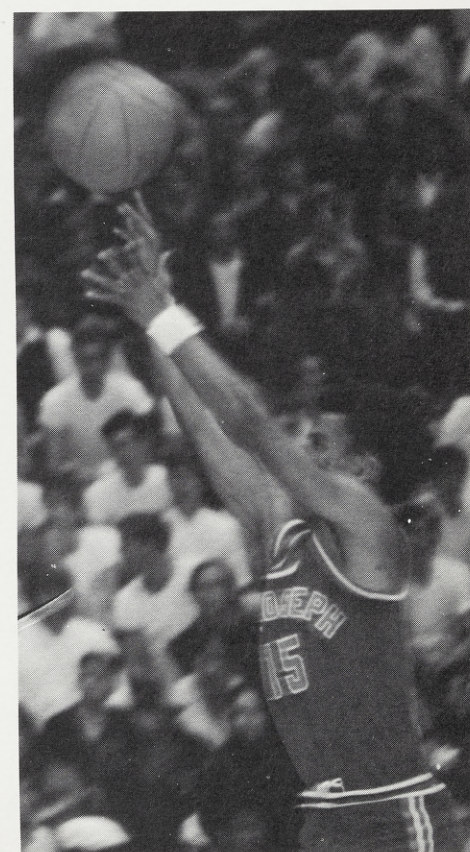

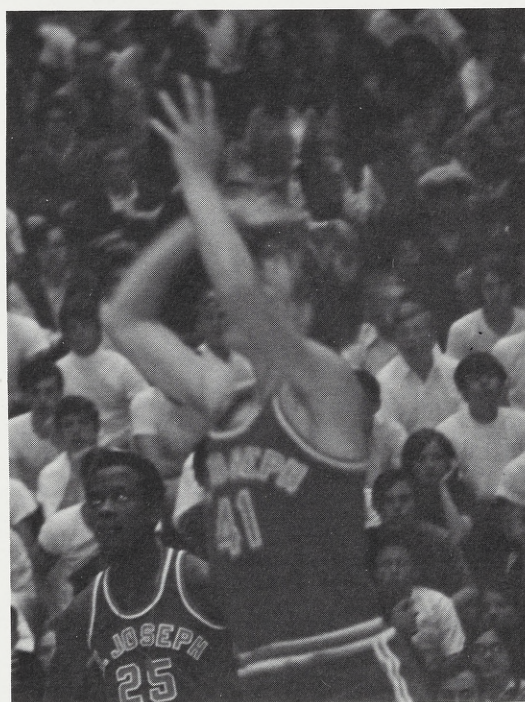

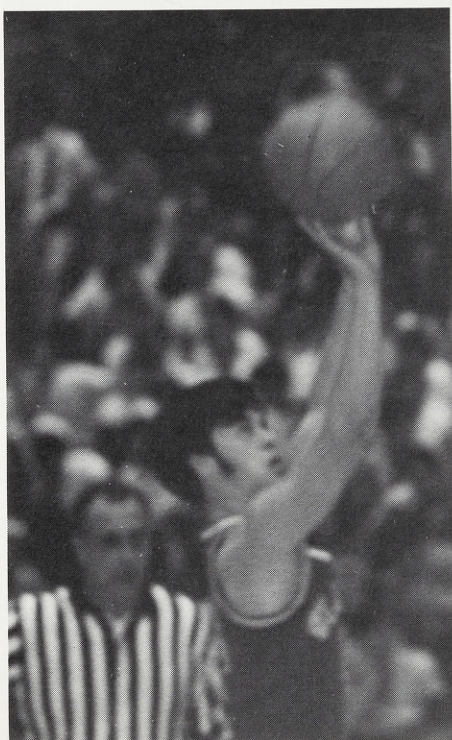

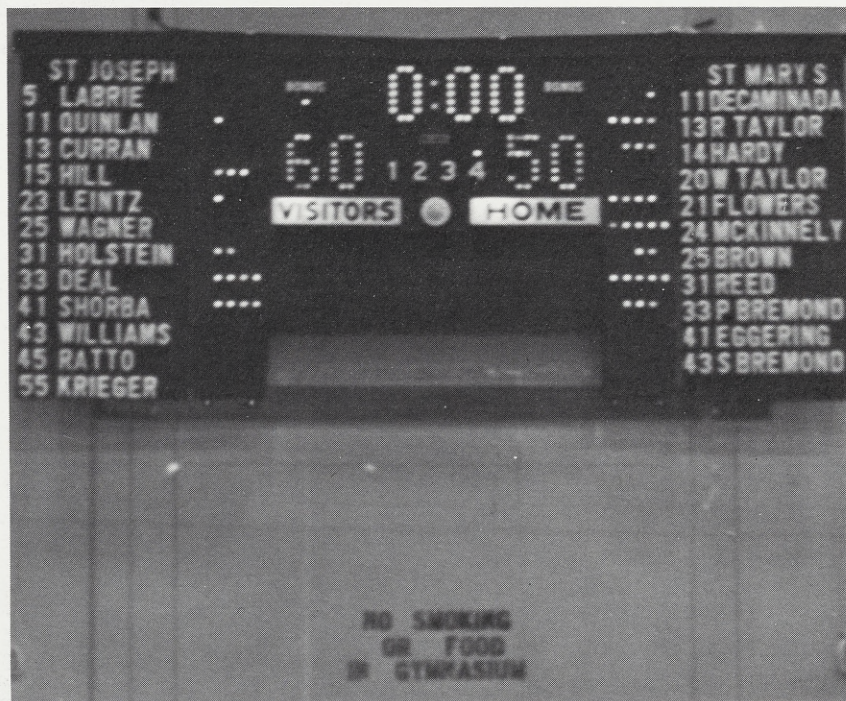

The Frosh started the season off with their one and only loss to the St. Ignatius freshmen. Our preseason record was 8 wins and 1 loss. This included winning the Berkeley West Campus Tournament, defeating the St. Elizabeth freshmen in the final.

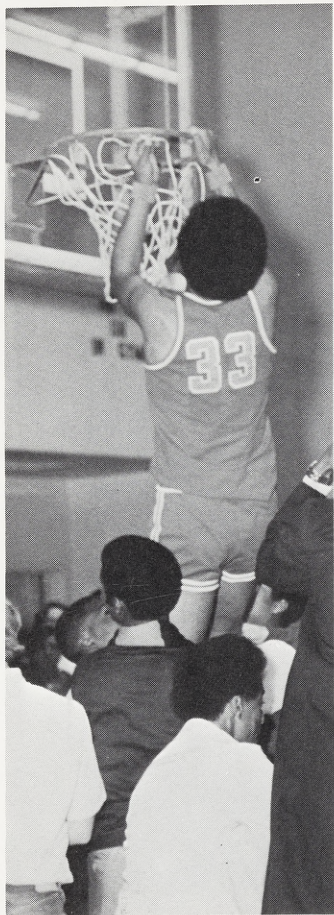

The Freshmen went undefeated in league play - the first time a team at St. Joseph has ever accomplished that feat. Displaying a balanced offense and a sure defeat into last minute victories. In recognition of this overall ability three members of the squad received Honorable Mention. Henderson McDaniel was a unanimous selection. Accompanying him on the team were Jerry Langford and Steve Martinez. John O'Donnel won the Honorable Mention spot.

Playoffs C. A. L.

The St. Joseph Pilots wrote one of the most exciting sports stories in their history this year. The Pilots were probably the shortest team in the Northern California Regional League, just averaging 5'10" in height. According to most basketball experts a team this small can't possibly win unless they are a very fast pressing team. However, the Pilots were also the slowest team in the league. So how could this team possibly win? This possessed an unceasing desire to prove the skeptics wrong. Every time they won it was printed as a big upset, but the Pilots never doubted themselves and knew that they could win. They entered the playoffs confidently after coming in 2nd place in the round robin. They knew the weaknesses of each team in the playoffs and exploited them to perfection, beating St. Mary's, St. Elizabeth, and Bishop O'Dowd in succession. The Pilots had no individual super stars but had many good players. This was a very smart Pilot team which made a few mistakes. All 10 men are college bound and fine men.

1970-71 Cross Country

The 1970 St. Joseph Cross Country teams compiled a combined record of 18 wins against 10 losses with the Frosh-Soph team leading the way with a record of 8 wins and 1 loss plus the Catholic Athletic League Championship. This years varsity was led by Allen Dworke and John LaBrie with two more juniors Don McGue, and Tony Buscemi close behind, so next year's team should improve quite a bit on this year's 3-7 record. The J.V. team lost only 2 meets all year and finished 3rd in the league. New-comers Rich Gerdes and Joe Avalos led the team all year, and look forward to them to help the varsity next year. The Frosh/Soph team lost their opening meet, and won the next eight in a row for the league championship, our second in three years. Freshman John O'Donnell led the team all year although John Holstein was right in his heels all the time, however, the depth provided by Andre Reynier, Steve Martinez, Larry Picinich, and Hector Arroyo gave us the Championship.

The Pilots open the C.A.L. season with the league's youngest team. Five starters are Sophomores among them John Holstein who is Number one pitcher. The fliers will lean heavily on Holstein and Rich Quinlan for pitching, while Chuck Sabbatini, Tom Curran, and John Smith handle the hitting for rookie coach Mike Phelps' crew.
